Lodging and Meals: Lodging is available at a discounted rate at Montecito Sequoia Lodge and Stony Creek Lodge in the Sequoia National Forest. Lodging at Montecito Sequoia Lodge is family camp-style while Stony Creek Lodge offers more traditional motel-style rooms. Attendees are also welcome to camp independently or find their own lodging in the vicinity. Lodging at Montecito Sequoia Lodge and Stony Creek Lodge is first-come, first-served so reserve your room early!

For attendees staying at Montecito Sequoia Lodge, all meals are included in the cost of lodging. Attendees staying at Stony Creek Lodge or offsite will have the option to purchase meals at Montecito Sequoia Lodge. For those staying at Stony Creek Lodge or offsite, we recommend purchasing dinner on May 29th and lunch and dinner on May 30th at Montecito Sequoia Lodge.

To reserve lodging or purchase meals at Montecito Sequoia Lodge, please call 800-227-990 or email reserve@mslodge.com and mention the Sierra Meadows Partnership to receive the group discount. To reserve lodging at Stony Creek Lodge, please call (877) 828-1440 or email reserve@mslodge.com and mention the Sierra Meadows Partnership to receive the group discount.

Financial Assistance: Engagement of indigenous communities is a priority for the SMP. To reduce the barriers to attending the annual gathering, scholarships are available for tribes and indigenous-led groups who wish to participate.
